LADIES'TAILOREDSUITS

One Fourth Clipped Off The Price

ATHER early to expect such a reduction in New Up-to-Date Tailored Gowns, but we wish to clean up the season early and quick. "No two bites with us"---down goes the price to the bottom at once.

Still a choice of about 50 Suits. Some only came into stock since May 1st. But hardly two suits alike, so what is the use of descriptions, but > to get you to think just what this price advantage is, we name a few:

$25.00	Suits	Reduced	to	$18.75
21.50	66	66	46	16.12
20.00		66	66	15.00
17.50	66	66	46	13.12
14.00	66	66	56	10.50
10.00	66	66	66	7.50
8.50	66	66	66	6.38
7.50	46	"	66	5.75

We can, in all truthfulness, say that our regular prices were from two to five dollars less than the usual of city stores.

An opportunity to get a traveling suit for the exposition, or other trip, at a great saving.

The old court house had been burned and a new one erected. The McLean house, where the surrend took place, had been taken down brie by brick, with a view to moving it to Washington as a show place. The house occupied by General Grant as headquarters at the time of the suit render had disappeared, and there was nothing left but a little depression in the ground. Only one man could be found who was a resident of Appomatte Court House at the time of the battle ommittee to confer with the turnpike and knew where the important event had taken place. The Antietam battlefield has cost the government thus far only a little most than $120,000, which, it is said, has been spent under the direction of the Secretary of War much more effectively than the greater amounts under the direction of the commissions of the four great nilitary parks. The area and original cost of the four great national parks were as follows: $232,468,50 Shilob ... 41,418,50

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. OR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT AMUEL GUSTINE THOMPSON

of Philadelphi:.

GETTYSBURG, PA., MAY 24, 1904 TO THE VOIERS OF ADAMS AND FULTON COUNTIES: MY FELLOW DEMOCRATS:

Since very many of my friends have asked me to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President Judge of this District, it is due to you and to them that I make known my position in the matter.

It seems to me that a Judgeship should not be unduly sought; nor, unless for good reasons, be declined, if offered. No higher honor could come to me than to be called by the votes of my feilow citizens to preside as President Judge over the Courts of this Judicial District. If I am nominated I will gladly accept the nomination, and I will use every legal and honorable means to secure my

It will be a pleasure for me to me von and to hear from you; and I trust you will confer with your delegates so that your wishes in the matter may be known and your nomines when named may be satisfactory to the majority of the voters. If I am nominated and elected I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

Very truly yours,

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS ADAMS AND FULTON COUNTIES. The position of President Judge of this Judicial District is one that should be sought after honorably and fairly and if acquired should be filled impartially and justly. After repeated requests from my friends to be a candidate for this ofsee I have decided to announce myself as such, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention of Adams Co., and the Democratic Conference of this District. If nominated by the Adams County Convention I will use every honorable means to secure the District nomination and if successful in obtaining this, will exert every effort fairly and honorable to secure my election.
Yours very truly,
Chas S. Duncan.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF APAMS AND FULTON COUNTIES:

I hereby appounce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of President Judge of the 51st Judicia. District, composed of the Counties of Adams and Fulton. Subject to the decisio 1 of the Adams County Conventio and the District Conference. TOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE

Good Spirits.—Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel bueyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dypp psia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

The nine gored skirt is still in favor, and in truth many of last year's designs are included in the styles of this year. For practical purposes the skirt is short does not have a train, and while it is wide, it is so well cut that it can be held up easily in the street. The nine gored skirt on the left in my illustration exemplifies this popular skirt, with which is worn a picturesque little bolero with the prevailing deep shoulder cape, resulting in a happy mingling of the picturesque and practical.

All attempts at exaggeration in modes, whether in hats or in dress this season will be failures. The present idea of dress is moderation, while there is a tendency toward the fitted bodice, the comfortable blouse will be by no means ousted, although the very "baggy" blouse is a thing of the past. The fitted bodice is as yet a draped affair, with no darts, and comes to a point in front below the waist line. While the fitted bodica lands itself

AN ELEPHANT TRAIT. The Autmat While Busy Will Never

"An elephant never injures a person when it is busy," says an animal trainer with a big circus. "It may sound strange, but there is not a case on record of one getting ugly when it was performing or working. The reason, I think, is that the elephant is an animal of one dea—that is, it can think of only one thing at a time.

"When you put an elephant at work it gives its whole alternian to the test."

ing a trick we can't leave it for a min ute or it will loaf or stop work alto-gether, but it is different with an elephant. Once get it started, either alon or with others, and it will go through with its turn without another word It is absorbed in its work.
"That same trait, I take it, is wha makes an elephant such a victors animal when it gets ugly. It can think of nothing but what has made it angry and it will not stop until it has form something to pieces. Oh, yes, an elephant can carry a gradge. It never forester to the terms of the state of the gets an injury, and it waits its chance to get even, but when it is husy it for gets the tricks that have been played on it. It is only when it has nothing to do that it gets to brooding over its troubles. Human, ch? Well, I have known folk with that sort of disposi Leap Year Proposals.

The origin of the peculiar woman's right of leap year is said to date back to the fifth century. St. Bridger, so the story goes, was troubled because the women under her charge insisted on their right of proposing to the men. Accordingly she went to St. Patrick and begged him to settle the matter by fixing certain seasons in which wome might take the initiative. St. Patrick promised them every seventh year, but then, pleased by the persuadice elo-quence of St. Bridgot, he said they should have the longest year in the cabridar, and that was every fourth year, when February had an extra day.

miliar parting salute, "So long," ther is a suggestion that it is derived from the Norwegian "Saa lacage," a common form of farewell, equivalent to meaning to "an revole," and pronounced like "so long," with the "g" soften ed. There was a fuir number of Nor-weglans among the settlers in America, to judge Ly names, and it is quite likely the phrase was picked up from them. It is in general use among the Dutch in South Africa.—London Glabe.
